

January / February

 bonus distribution at TradeTech USA*

Special Report: Anatomy of a Buy Side Trader: What does it take to be a successful buy side trader in today's environment? What skill sets and technology expertise are essential, how are they changing? What must a buy side trader do to become a head trader? What type of management skills, etc., particularly during turbulent times, new skills, technologies, etc.

Ad close: December 18^h, Material close: December 30th

March / April

European Dark Pools/MTFs: There has been a lot of fanfare about the European Multilateral Trading Facilities which have entered the market, as well as those that are expected to launch. This story takes the pulse of the European MTF landscape.

Ad close: February 23rd, Material close: March 4th

May / June

Electronic Trading Innovators: Who has been responsible for some of the major innovations that have changed and electronified the trading landscape? This story looks back at how some industry experts were able to look ahead and change trading forever.

Ad close: April 14th, Material close: April 24th

July / August

 bonus distribution at SIFMA Technology Management*

Algorithmic Trading: Once only in the world of equities, algo trading is now used to trade many other products. This story looks at where algo trading works and where it doesn't.

Ad close: June 15th, Material close: June 30th

September / October

One year ago the market took the largest downward spiral since the crash of '87, after the initial government bailout plan was voted down by Congress. This story takes a look at the markets prospects and opportunities a year after a turbulent time in financial services when many troubled investment banks, such as Lehman Brothers, Merrill Lynch, Wachovia took drastic measures to survive the credit crisis. Ad close: August 21st, Material close: September 1st

Special Issue (October)

Gold Book: In-depth profiles with high-level buy side traders

Ad close: September 23rd, Material close: September 30th

November / December  distribution at AT's Buyside Trading Summit*

A look at the trading technologies and trends that will be critical in 2010.

Ad close: October 16th, Material close: October 28th

